Celebrity chef Jun Tanaka stirred up further excitement at the Dubai Food Festival with a live demonstration at Ibn Battuta Mall on 10 March.

The renowned UK TV chef Jun prepared a dish of sea bass salad to give visitors and foodies at Ibn Battuta Mall the opportunity to preview a sample of what he would be cooking during the weekend at Taste of Dubai, another attraction of DFF 2016.

Chef Jun's demonstration was part of the exciting lineup of activities hosted by Nakheel's Ibn Battuta Mall during the citywide culinary celebrations, which ends today (Saturday 12 March).

The 17-day Dubai Food Festival, held under the theme 'Celebrate Taste', is aimed at showcasing the Emirate's emergence as a gastronomy destination through a lineup of food-related events, activities, promotions, and live demonstrations by food celebrities.
