Dubai welcomes the Holy Month of Ramadan with diversified events and activities
Cultural and family-oriented activities to offer special experiences to residents and visitors

8 June, 2016, Dubai, UAE: - The vibrant city of Dubai is set to receive the holy month of Ramadan with a wide range of cultural and family events inspired by the values of the holy month. The 6th edition of ‘Ramadan in Dubai’, the multi-purpose awareness campaign, will be highlighting how Dubai embraces the serenity and tranquility that comes with Ramadan as a month of spiritual enlightenment, yet remains faithful to its dynamic business environment.

Most of the events and activities under the ‘Ramadan in Dubai’ banner involves the whole community under a common platform of collaboration between the government and private sectors, and is part of the bigger efforts to further enhance Dubai’s image as a must-visit holiday destination across the year.

The range of Ramadan activities allows fasting and non-fasting people to discover and be a part of the period of enlightenment while at the same time enjoying the vibrant ambience and hospitality of a city that has made its mark internationally as a year-round family tourism destination.

From cultural activities embracing the spirit of Ramadan and showcasing Emirati heritage to indoor events and daily Iftar gatherings, the citywide Ramadan in Dubai campaign is offering a line-up of special experiences for both residents and tourists to enjoy.
