Amazon Prime Video Announces Dubai as the final destination for series one of The Grand Tour

Jeremy Clarkson, Richard Hammond and James May are heading to the city of the supercar and invite fans to apply to join the studio audience

7th November 2016 – Amazon has today announced that after a year-long journey around the world, Dubai will be the final destination for the studio filming aspect of the new Amazon Original Series The Grand Tour, bringing the first series of the Prime exclusive show to a close.

Having travelled around the globe, the show's mobile studio - a giant tent – will be pitched at the base of the world's tallest tower, The Burj Khalifa, located in the heart of Downtown Dubai. To be part of the studio audience, fans can apply online here. Entries are open for one week and successful applicants will be contacted over the next few weeks, with the studio filming taking place in December.

“After an epic whirlwind trip around the globe, Dubai will be the final chance for fans to come and join Jeremy, Richard and James for the final studio recording of the first ever series of The Grand Tour,” said Jay Marine, VP of Amazon Video Europe. “Demand for tickets has been incredible, so don't miss out and apply today to join the guys in Dubai for the ultimate adventure and an experience to remember. “

The Grand Tour, which has been shot in 4K Ultra High Definition, will launch on 18th November 2016 exclusively for Amazon Prime members, with new episodes releasing weekly for 12 weeks. Prime members can watch The Grand Tour via the Amazon Video app on smart TVs, streaming media players - including FireTV and FireTV Stick - Xbox, PlayStation, Wii, Wii U, on iOS and Android phones and tablets, and on the web.

Jeremy, Richard and James have been travelling the world filming the first series of The Grand Tour in far-flung locations across the globe. The team has already taken the tent to Johannesburg, California, Whitby, Rotterdam and Lapland with Stuttgart, Scotland and Nashville next on the itinerary. To keep across all the news, fans can follow The Grand Tour on Facebook, Twitter and at Amazon.

The Grand Tour joins Amazon Prime Video's line-up of award-winning and critically acclaimed TV shows and movies. Prime Video is the only place to stream Amazon Original and Exclusive Series including The Man in the High Castle, Transparent, Mr Robot, Preacher, Mozart in the Jungle, The Collection, Red Oaks and Bosch. About Dubai

Dubai is one of the world's most exhilarating destinations: a glittering city that offers swathes of golden beaches and world-class shopping, dining and nightlife. It hosts electrifying events and sporting championships, and for all the family, is one big, adventurous playground. A place where tradition meets ambition, where the past meets the future, the visionary city is also proud to display its rich heritage and culture. Welcome to Arabia and welcome to the destination that has made it its mission to become "the world's most visited city".

Extraordinary images of Dubai's skyline have been seen around the world, but this is a city that must be experienced to be believed. Where else can you spend the morning on the beach, the afternoon snow skiing and the evening camel riding in the desert? Where else can you dive with sharks in a shopping mall and watch dancing fountains at the base of the world's tallest tower? Whatever your passion, whatever your age – Dubai will never disappoint. And with many more hotels and attractions in the pipeline, no-one can ever truly say they've ticked off Dubai. With changes constantly afoot, Dubai is a city that can be visited year after year, after year.
