

Seventh edition of Dubai Food Festival kicks off

16 Jan 2020, Dubai, UAE

Await an array of delicious offerings, as the much-awaited Dubai Food Festival (DFF) returns for its seventh edition on 26 February with a citywide culinary extravaganza that will cement Dubai's position as the gastronomy capital of the region.

Running until 14 March, the upcoming edition of DFF will celebrate the city's culinary diversity drawn from the UAE and the cultures of over 200 nationalities in Dubai, and also give residents, visitors, families and foodies an insight into the latest tastes and trends from the global gastronomy scene.

Organised by the Dubai Festivals and Retail Establishment (DFRE), the 18-day DFF2020 will offer an appealing range of mouth-watering events including annual favourites including Dubai Restaurant Week, Beach Canteen, Hidden Gems and Foodie Experiences featuring masterclasses, chef tables and unique dining fare as well as exciting new activations, appearances by celebrity chefs, food-related events and promotions at malls, restaurants, hypermarkets, and much more.
